Hello! My name is Chrissy Kirk. I may not know you, but I know what you've been through. I know what the road from here will look like. In knowing that, I also know how much the UK Markey Cancer center cares for you. From the moment we learned of my grandfathers cancer. UK was there.
They took the utmost respectable and palpable care of him and us too.
All it takes is positivity. Do not give up on your journey. Trust your caretakers and the Lord above.
Keep fighting the good fight.
Sincerely, Chrissy Kirk	Chrissy

I just thought I would share a message that I found with you What Cancer Cannot Do
Cancer is so limitedIt cannot cripple love. It cannot shatter hope.
It cannot corrode faith. It cannot eat away peace. It cannot destroy confidence.
It cannot kill friendship. It cannot shut out memories. It cannot silence courage.
It cannot reduce eternal life. It cannot quench the Spirit.
Best wishes & hugs for y'all!	Samantha

Hey there hope all is well with you today. Well I know your there and your sick. But let me tell ya.
It's going to be ok. I was there in 2016 with my father. We have a stem cell transplant. The staff was awesome. You will get the best treatment there. I stayed the whole time with my dad. One night I did come home he made me I didn't want to he said go home to your family l'm fine here I got all these nurses here if I need them. So I took the evening and came home which is a good 2 hours give it take. He beat cancer. He told many times if it wasn't for me there with him pushing him he couldn't of did it himself. He was my rock and I was his. I lost my father not due to cancer but due to a heart attack. I was with him. He knew I was the strongest ones of my siblings and knew he could depend on me to hold his hand and take his last breath with me and his first breath in heaven. He went seems to be peaceful kinda he was having a hard time breathing but other than that he was ready. I wasn't but I stayed strong. Me and my daddy was very close. I lost my mom last day of 2012. So when that happened I had to help pick up the slack around home n help dad. A few of his last words were l'm going. l'm like you ain't going no where. He said year I have too.
He said tell my grand-babies he loved them all and told me he loved me. I called 911 to get help I seen he had stopped breathing I tried my best to save him but it was his turn to go. Don't never give up. You will recovery. You may have a few set backs along the way but never I say never give up.
God loves you and so do I. Take care God Bless. If you want write me tell me a little about yourself.
Maybe you don't have family that can be there especially since we are in this pandemic. This is crazy. My dads funeral wasn't the Norma funeral at all. The parking lot would of been packed. But since the covid things was really bad during that time only us kids n grandchildren and his siblings we're allowed. So empty. But he always told me nothing fancy. So it was simply got to visit with him for about an hour during the funeral that was it. I feel like we was cheated out of being able to spend more time with him.l but everything went well. My daddy served in the Air Force 1974. It's past my bed time.	Melissa
Keep your head up. I'm praying for you. Stay Strong.	Serenna

My prayers are with you all suffering from cancer. Trust the Lord's will and timing in this difficult time. If you're familiar with Footprints in the Sand poem, rest assured the Lord is carrying you through this painful time. May you feel His strength and peace in your heart.	linda
Keep fighting the good fight! I am thinking of you and praying for you.	Caitlyn
I am praying for you. I know it's hard, but you can make it through. My mother has metastatic breast cancer and she takes treatments and she has been making it with God's help. We'll be praying for you for comfort, strength and healing.	Amanda
May God fight your battle for you ðŸ™₂stay strong. Have a blessed day ðŸ™₂	JONATHON
God will be handling all of your troubles today- keep the faith ðŸ'>	Catherine I know that your life right now is full of challenges. I pray for you and all of the other patients at Markey as you face each day. I pray that you will have moments of joy, laughter and levity sprinkled into even the toughest days. Your strength is amazing!	Amy God Bless You! You are not alone as you battle through the tough days. Stay positive as hard as that may be.	Кір
Don't give up hope. Keep fighting. We don't have a time limit. Keep your faith.	Joyce
I'm a survivor and so are you. Stay strong! Much love!	Andrea
